The Kentuck Museum Association is proud to announce the Kentuck Ambassador Program. The program is designed for art enthusiasts and Kentuck lovers and is a great way to get involved in Kentuck programming and community events.

A Kentuck Ambassador will give presentations on upcoming events to civic groups, garden clubs, classes, book clubs, and others who want to be informed on all things Kentuck.

Ambassadors receive training from Kentuck staff, equipment and pre-packaged presentations. Ambassador responsibilities include public speaking, publicity events, fundraising campaigns, and special programs. Ambassador duties will also involve Kentuck Festival volunteering and other needs throughout the year.

A Kentuck Ambassador will receive a Kentuck t-shirt, a Kentuck Festival volunteer pass, and a certificate upon completion.

Application deadline is March 1. The program will last during the 2010 calendar year. Only 5 spots are available. Applicants must be Kentuck Members.

For more information contact Kentuck at 205-758-1257.
